FOREWORD

The death of Dr. Douglas Heath, of Birmingham, has robbed the Numismatic World of one who appreciated the beauty of a fine coin.

His collection is not extensive, but it comprises some of the choicest examples of English die sinker's art as well as a few from Ancient Greece.

It is surprising to find in so small a compass so many of the desiderata of British Numismatics:—Sovereigns of all the Tudor Monarchs, including the very rare third issue of Edward VI, and one of Mary dated 1554. There are Ryals of Elizabeth and James I; Angels of Henry VI, Edward V, Philip and Mary, Mary alone, James I and Charles I, and a really fine George Noble and Henry VIII.

Among the Stuart coins the following are worthy of note:— The Oxford Treble Unite 1643, lot 84, the Bristol Unite of 1645, the two Spur Ryals of James I, as well as the EXVRGAT Unite and the Laurel lot 69.

Dr. Heath took great interest in the West of England mints of the Civil War period 1642-1646, and the collection includes many coins of the Truro—Exeter and the Aberystwyth—Shrewsbury—Oxford series. The exact attribution of some of these pieces may be still conjectural, but generally the cataloguer has followed Dr. George C. Brooke's arrangement in "English Coins."

Most of the coins are from famous collections, and where possible this catalogue shows the provenance: unfortunately Dr. Heath's death left his affairs in considerable confusion, and many of the coin tickets were lost or displaced, thus rendering it impossible to give the coin's pedigree.

We have illustrated the catalogue with eight collotype plates of illustrations. These give a good idea of the high standard of condition set by the collection.

PRICED CATALOGUES.

AFTER each sale these catalogues are issued with the prices realised printed in the margin opposite each lot, thus giving at a glance a reliable guide to values.

The final test of value must always be auction prices rather than the figures given in books of reference, for changing times and fashions soon render the latter obsolete and misleading.

On the average we issue twelve Coin and Medal catalogues a year, some of which are usually of sales of important collections. The priced catalogues are posted to subscribers as soon as ready, usually about a week after the date of sale and the subscription is . . . .

ONE GUINEA per annum.
